

Please join us for a Seminar

COMPLIANCE STRATEGIES FOR POINT AND NON-POINT
SOURCE TMDLs

Wednesday, May 12, 2010 from 8:30 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.
Reception following Workshop

Vanderbilt University
Jacobs Believed in Me Auditorium
Featheringill Hall (Room 134)

RSVP to Donna Morgan
615-320-3161 | morgandj@cdm.com
by May 1
sponsored by

CDM

 VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

This CDM workshop is a complimentary service to our valued clients and qualifies for PDH credits. Please see reverse for topics that will be included.

Compliance Strategies for Point and Non-Point Source TMDLs Workshop

TENTATIVE AGENDA

- Tennessee TMDL Regulatory Update (Sherry Wang, TDEC)
- Comprehensive Non-Point and Point Source Strategies for Nutrient TMDLs (Wayne Miles, CDM)
- Watershed Master Planning - Pollutant Loads and Nutrient Management Strategies (Mike Schmidt, CDM)
- Tennessee MS4 Regulatory Update (Robert Karesh, TDEC)

Lunch

- Visual Stream Assessments to Identify Solutions - Current Issues/ Planning and Implementation (Zack Daniel, CDM)
- Microbial Source Tracking - What is it and What can it Tell Us? (Dr. Alice Layton, University of Tennessee)
- Balancing Economics and TMDL Requirements Through Integrated Water Resources Planning (Kirk Westphal, CDM)
- Case Studies - Successful Stormwater BMPs and Retrofits to Reduce Pollutant Loads (Dave Mason, CDM)
- Region IV and the Future of TMDLs: Numeric Nutrient Limits? (Scott McClelland, CDM)
- Roundtable Panel and Discussion (Mike McGhee, CDM and former EPA Region IV Water Administrator, All Speakers)

